As registration overshot our expectation, we had to come up with repeat batches. By end of April, 10 camps for different levels of students were conducted in an 'edutainment' environment. Each camp had some 65 students. A similar number of parents were present in each inaugural and concluding functions. Children were so joyous and active that they longed for more such camps. Their enthusiasm was almost palpable. Feedbacks from the participating students proved that the objective of the camp was more than achieved.

BI-DECENNIAL CELEBRATION LAUNCHED

The Bi-decennial celebration of CIGI was launched and as part of it a year long series of seminars was inaugurated by the Vice Chancellor of Calicut University Dr. K Muhammed Basheer, the first seminar topic being 'humanization of Education'. A book titled 'Manaveekaranamanu Vidhyabyasam' authored by Prof. V. Kunhabdulla was also formally released by the Vice Chancellor by handing over a copy to Mr. Dominic Mathew director ISDS CIGI. Prof. Kunhabdulla thanked everyone involved in the releasing of his book. Prof. K.E.N Kunhahamed social activist, writer and orator delivered a farsighted keynote address stressing the urgent need for inculcating human values in the student community.

Dr. Yaseen Ashraf traced the causes why education has become a burden not just to the students but also the teachers and parents. General secretary Dr. Z.A Ashraf welcomed the guests and President Mr. Abdul Salam delivered the Presidential address.
